

Turn Missed Calls into Paying Customers

Your AI receptionist automatically texts back anyone who calls when you're unavailable and books appointments 24/7.

Here's how it works:

89%

of customers want to text your business.²

98%

of texts are read while only 20% of emails are opened.³

20%

of customers will leave a voicemail, while 60% of customers will interact with Messenger^[ai].⁴
