Simple, seamless multi-location management

Our corporate tools make it easier to manage your entire business from one place, helping each location deliver a consistently on-brand experience every time.

Sophisticated reporting for data-driven decisions

Your enterprise requires analytics that are both powerful and user-friendly. Detailed dashboards track the metrics you need to make effective, strategic business decisions.

Technology for every step of the customer journey

Your corporation needs technology that supports a richer 360-consumer experience—lead capture to customer engagement and retention. Generate more revenue with a seamless, branded experience through the whole pipeline.

“Mindbody is the best in the business with what they do. The cloud-based CRM is incredible. The attention to detail they give strategic accounts cannot be found elsewhere.”
